One's upon a time, there was a Marcelleke. He was a very wise man, who lived his life to the fullest. One day he was asked to give a workshop at the ECCI XI convention. oh my! What a dragon to face! But he accepted the challenge. He entered the room like a Magician who deals with the situation as it is, a wanderer who just goes his own way, a Ruler who keeps the whole presentation organised or ... somebody else. There he stood in front of a group of creativity hungry dragons.

He took a deep breath, looked the dragons straight in the eyes and started telling. The most interesting stories all free for own interpretation. The dragons were amused and had a feeling that they experienced something special. When there was no time left the dragons were more than satisfied and our great Hero Marcel continued his journey of life.
